Brownies of Troop Plan Activities

The Brownies of Troop 308 enjoyed a visit to Lane's Aquarium in Spout Spring on November 10 along with their leaders, Mrs. Barbara Mayberry, Mrs. Thelma Knight, Mrs. Nancy Mayberry and Mrs. Mildred Thompson. They were accompanied by several of the parents of Brownies. As a special treat, Mrs. Lane presented a free goldfish to each Brownie. Members of the troop would like to thank Mrs. Lane for allowing them to visit and to thank her for the gift of goldfish.

Brownies of the Troop #308 would like to thank everyone who helped to make their first day camp such a success!

With the holiday season so near, the next couple of months are sure to be very busy ones for the Troop. A special trip to see Santa Claus at Sear Catalog Store he Troop. A special trip to see anta Claus at Sears Catalog tore in the Plaza has been lanned for November 16th, eather permitting.

Next, they are planning to fill Thanksgiving basket to be elivered to a local nursing ome, and to present a book to he Appomattox County Li rary on November 30th. Mrs. hirley Walton will be guest peaker for the December 7th meeting at which time there vill be a special Christmas rogram for Brownies and their arents. The three B's of rownies are To Be Friend akers, To Be Ready Helpers, nd To Be Discoverers, and here is no better time than the oliday season to provide an pportunity to do all three!
